MISSION STATEMENT

ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY IS CATHOLIC, VINCENTIAN, AND METROPOLITAN.

As a UNIVERSITY, we commit ourselves to academic excellence and the pursuit of wisdom which flows from free inquiry, religious values, and human experience. We strive to preserve and enhance an atmosphere in which scholarly research, imaginative methodology, global awareness, and an enthusiastic quest for truth serve as the basis of a vital teaching-learning process and the development of lifelong learning. Our core curriculum in the liberal arts and sciences aims to enrich lives as well as professions and serves to unify the undergraduate experience. Graduate and professional schools express our commitment to research, rigorous standards, and innovative application of knowledge. We aim not only to be excellent professionals with an ability to analyze and articulate clearly what is but also to develop the ethical and aesthetic values to imagine and help realize what might be.

St. John's is a CATHOLIC university, founded in 1870 in response to an invitation of the first Bishop of Brooklyn, John Loughlin, to provide the youth of the city with an intellectual and moral education. We embrace the Judeo-Christian ideals of respect for the rights and dignity of every person and each individual's responsibility for the world in which we live. We commit ourselves to create a climate patterned on the life and teaching of Jesus Christ as embodied in the traditions and practices of the Roman Catholic Church. Our community, which comprises members of many faiths, strives for an openness which is "wholly directed to all that is true, all that deserves respect, all that is honest, pure, admirable, decent, virtuous, or worthy of praise" (Philippians 4:8). Thus, the university is a place where the Church reflects upon itself and the world as it engages in dialogue with other religious traditions.

St. John's is a VINCENTIAN university, inspired by St. Vincent de Paul's compassion and zeal for service. We strive to provide excellent education for all people, especially those lacking economic, physical, or social advantages. Community service programs combine with reflective learning to enlarge the classroom experience. Wherever possible, we devote our intellectual and physical resources to search out the causes of poverty and social injustice and to encourage solutions which are adaptable, effective, and concrete. In the Vincentian tradition, we seek to foster a world view and to further efforts toward global harmony and development by creating an atmosphere in which all may imbibe and embody the spirit of compassionate concern for others so characteristic of Vincent.

St. John's is a METROPOLITAN university. We benefit from cultural diversity, the intellectual and artistic resources, and the unique professional educational opportunities offered by New York City, Rome and other international cities. With this richness comes responsibility. We encourage the metropolitan community to use our resources to serve their needs. On the local, state, national and international levels, our alumni serve as effective leaders and responsible citizens. We pledge to foster those qualities required for anticipating and responding to the educational, ethical, cultural, social, professional and religious needs of dynamic cities in a dynamic world.

f. Any one or more members of the Board or any Committee thereof may participate in a meeting of the Board or Committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment allowing all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other at the same time. a. Members of the Board of Trustees shall have undivided allegiance to the University's mission when using either the power of their position or information they possess concerning the University or its property. Trustees may never use their position or information concerning the University and its property to allow themselves, or individuals or other entities with whom they are associated, to secure a pecuniary benefit. b. All Trustees shall maintain strict confidentiality on all Board issues.

c. The Board of Trustees recognizes that none of its members shall benefit financially or otherwise to the detriment of the University. The Board of Trustees further recognizes that many of its members have been selected because of their expertise, knowledge and prominence in their particular fields of endeavor and that such expertise by them, or individuals or other entities with whom they are associated, may be of benefit to the University.

d. If a Trustee, or individuals or other entities with whom they are associated, has an interest in a proposed transaction, the Trustee must make full disclosure of such interest as soon as he or she becomes aware of a potential conflict arising from such a transaction. After full disclosure by a conflicted Trustee, if the Board of Trustees considers that the benefits to the University outweigh any financial or other gain to the conflicted Trustee, it may permit the doing of business with such Trustee or individuals or other entities with whom the Trustee is associated. In any action taken by the Board of Trustees, the Minutes shall reflect that the Trustee disclosed his or her conflict of interest and that the disinterested Trustees, without any participation or vote by the conflicted Trustee, approved or disapproved the transaction.

e. To implement the foregoing policy, each Trustee will submit an annual Conflict of Interest Statement to the Chairperson of the Board and, if not previously disclosed, will make disclosure of any actual or potential conflict. It is the further responsibility of each Trustee to advise the Chairperson of the Board should a particular situation arise in which he or she may have a conflict of interest not evident from the Statement of Interest. These matters shall be reviewed by the Executive Committee, which will attempt to resolve any actual or potential conflict and, in the absence of resolution, shall refer the matter to the Board of Trustees for resolution. In addition, all disclosures of any actual or potential conflict, whether or not resolved by the Executive Committee, shall be reported to the Board of Trustees.

corporation or partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise in any capacity at the request of the University. Any such person who is made, or threatened to be made, a party in any civil or criminal proceeding shall be indemnified against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees actually and necessarily incurred, for the defense of any such action or proceeding or any appeal therein. Such indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other indemnification rights to which any person may be entitled as such rights may be authorized by the New York Not-For-Profit Corporation Law, as amended from time to time.

1.28 Amendment of Statutes
